Located on Grand Boulevard in Detroit, Lee Plaza's revitalization serves as a crucial part of preserving Detroit's history while reducing blight and addressing affordable housing needs. Through a historic tax credit, two LIHTC transactions, and a City of Detroit ARPA investment, this building will once again house Detroiters — this time, seniors earning at or below 50% of area median income. The apartments will be affordable for adults ages 55+ who will pay no more than 30% of their income in rent, with affordability guaranteed for at least 45 years. The Roxbury Group and Lighthouse are co-developers, with LIHTC expertise from Ethos Development Partners. The next phase will be redeveloped by Lighthouse, adding 65 units on floors 11-15. RBC is the tax credit investor for all phases. This plan also strongly aligns with the State of Michigan and the City of Detroit's initiatives to increase affordable housing. To ensure that residents maintain their benefits and successfully access resources, Lighthouse will be the supportive service provider at Lee Plaza. Lighthouse will also partner with Detroit-based community organizations to provide enrichment programs for residents. Lighthouse requests $4M to maximize efficiency, timeline, and cost toward our goal to deliver a total of 182 new units of affordable senior housing with high-quality onsite amenities and supportive services.
